NEW ARRANGEMENT. The favorite steamer COLUMBIA, Capt. James Harper, has recently been put in complete order, having had a lded to her former accommodations a spicious saloon and fourteen comfortable staterooms, with entire new bedding and other furniture, and will antil the 22d Sep Baltimore EVERY SATURDAY AFTERNOON, at six instead of four o'clock-thus affording passengers and shippers two hours more in Baltimore, and arriving at Point Lookout and Kinsale at more convenient hours in the morning. Returning, the Columbia will leave Riley's wharf, Washington, EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING, at six, and Alexandria at seven o'clock, calling at all the usual stopping places, going and returning, to land and receive passengers and freight. Since the COLUMBIA has been enlarged, it rarely happens that she cannot take considerable additions to her usual freight. Shippers therefore having large lots of guano, pig iron, and other freight, can have them carried by special agreement, on terms mutually advantageous, on applieation to the following agents.

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in eash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in-sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become DR. FOR the prevention and cure of Fever and Aque and Bilious Fevers. This wonderful remedy prietors by a friend who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy land.

While going down theriver Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took and no Fever will touch you." Although incredulous as to its virtues; he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found plaints. On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said DYSPERSIA .- No person with this distressing that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Sometime afterwards, the gentlemanin convers ng with a Priest obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertaired where the medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

Since his return to America, It has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers-is now offered, to the American people. It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use on receipt of one dollar. Principal Depot and Manufactory, 188 Main St. Richmond, Va. Branch Office, Bank of Commerce

WEEP NOT FOR ME! Weep not for me, if ne'er again, I stray among the leafy trees,

Would eatch, as erst, the sportive breeze; Or, if the ancient arch'd balls-With corniced eves and frescoed walls,-Should list no more my joyous glee, My mother dear, weep not for me. Weep not if thou shouldst chance to view,

Beneath whose shady boughs I fain

Or mouldered trophy which when new I treasured most, long years before. Or if perchance thine eye should stray, Upon some line or modest lay,-Which years agone. I sung to thee,

Some volume of forgotten love,

Dear mother, then weep not for me. Weep not, if when bright summer's form, Trips gaily o'er the rocky hills, And with its perfumed lip at morn, Doth kiss the silver mantled rills; If then around the festive stand. I draw not with thy happy band,

To join in prayer, with bended knee, Pray mother! But weep not for me. Weep not, if in the thoughtless throng,-Of revellers or companions fair,-Thou happenest then, their 'midst among,

And I, a wanderer, am not there; If in the richly lighted hall Of dance, some comrade call my name, And tell of scenes on Time's dark seas Afloat and past, weep not for me. Weep not to look, my mother dear-,

When in the solemn train is borne

With measured tread, the straightened bier-Which bears me to the burisl tomb: But rather pluck the gilded leaf, Which shades thy bosom's earthly grief, That sunbeams there may wander free; When I am dead, weep not for me, LARRY LEE Louisiana, 1861.

WHAT IS A ZOUAVE .- A fellow with a red bag having sleeves to it for a coat; with Leather; also a large stock of Ladier' fine shoes and two red bags without sleeves to them for trowsers, with an embroidered and braided bag for a vest, with a cap like a red woolen saucepan; with yellow boots like the fourth robber in a stage play; with a moustache encouragement of the Southern trade, as we are like two half pounds paint brushes, and with determined to do all in our power to make their a sort of sword gun or gun sword for a weapon, that looks like the result of a love affair between an amorous broadsword and a lonely musket, indiscreet and tender-that is a Zouave. A fellow who can "pull up" a hundred-and-ten pound dumb-bell; who can climb up an eighty foot rope, hand over hand, with a barrel of flour hanging to his heels; who can do the "gaint swing" on a horizontal bar with a fitty-six tied to each ancle; who can walk up four flights of stairs, holding a heavy man in each hand, arms' length; and who can climb a greased pole feet first carrying sing extensive manufacturing facilities, he flatters a barrel of pork in his teeth-that is a A fellow who can jump seventeen feet four inches high without a spring board; walk Blondin's tight rope with his stomach, outside of nine brandy cocktails, a suit of chain armor outside his stomach and a stiff northeast gale outside of that; who can take a five shooting revolver in each hand and knock the spots of the ten of diamonds at eighty paces, turning summersaults all the time and firing every shot in the air-that is a Zouave .- "Doesticks." in

The infamous conduct of the Saxon Government, in arresting the Hungarian patriot Count Teleki, and delivering him into the hands of Austria, continues to occupy a large share of attention in Paris, where the victim of this outrage long resided and is widely palliate this act of servile meanness on the part of the Cabinet of Dresden.
